

THE KEENE SENTINEL

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 2011

MEN OF MANY FACES

Photos by MICHAEL MOORE / Sentinel Staff

Mexican artist Manuel Abeiro Horta, above, carves a traditional mask from basswood at Margaritas Mexican Restaurant in Keene Sunday night as part of the restaurant's education outreach program to bring Mexican culture to local communities. Manuel and his brother, Modesto, were on hand to demonstrate their hand-carving and hand-painting skills, which they have been doing professionally since they were 12.

At right, some of the masks made by the brothers are seen on display.

